PREFACE

The following tentative list of Colorado public documents is issued in accordance with an act of the Seventeenth General Assembly, approved May 5, 1909, making an appropriation "to pay the expense of printing a check list of the public documents of the State of Colorado."

The list purports to present an entry for every document from earliest territorial days to September 1, 1910, also to give sufficient information to readily identify each, viz.: title page, date, pagination, and size.

Cordial co-operation of State officers and institutions has aided greatly in collecting this material. Further co-operation of everyone interested in Colorado documents will be appreciated, and should result in correction of errors and omissions. Information should be addressed to State Board of Library Commissioners, Room 28, Capitol Building, Denver.

GEORGE M. LEE,
Secretary.

DEAF AND THE BLIND, COLORADO SCHOOL FOR THE.

Colorado Springs.

Established by an Act of the Tenth Legislative Assembly (Territorial). Approved February 13, 1874, under the name of "The Colorado Institute for the Education of Mutes." This Act was repealed by an Act of the First General Assembly, approved March 15, 1877; in force June 13, 1877; and the "Institution for the Education of the Mute and the Blind" was established by the same Act. On the Report of 1890-1894 the name appears "The Institution for the Education of the Deaf and the Blind;" but there appears to be no legislative warrant for the change. By an Act of the Tenth General Assembly, approved April 8, 1895, the name was changed to "Colorado School for the Deaf and the Blind."

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Called Legislative Assembly under the Territorial organization. Met biennially in odd numbered years, sessions beginning in January. The sessions of the Legislative Assembly were convened at the following places and dates:

First Session, Denver, September 9, 1861.

Second Session, Colorado City, July 7, 1862; adjourned to Denver, July 11, 1862.

Third Session, Golden, February 1, 1864; adjourned to Denver, February 4, 1864.

Fourth Session, Golden, January 2, 1865.

Fifth Session, Golden, January 1, 1866.

Sixth Session, Golden, December 3, 1866.

Seventh Session, Golden, December 2, 1867; adjourned to Denver, December 9, 1867.

From 1868 to 1870 the sessions were held biennially in even numbered years at Denver, commencing in January. The State was organized in 1876. The First General Assembly was convened November 1, 1876, and sessions held biennially thereafter, commencing in January of the odd numbered years.

An extra session of the Ninth General Assembly was held from January 10 to March 2, 1894, and on the 6th of April, 1897, immediately after the regular session, an extra session of the Eleventh General Assembly was convened, the laws of this session being printed in the back of the laws of the regular session. Extra sessions were also held in 1903 and 1910.

From 1858 to 1861 People's Courts and Miners' Courts held jurisdiction and from their decision there was no appeal. The judgments of these courts were reaffirmed by the Territory and by the State. The laws of some of these courts have been printed, but very few of them are now extant.

In 1859 a provisional government known as "Jefferson Territory" was organized and a legislative session held at Denver City. The session laws passed at this session were published, but only three copies are now known to exist.
